Dear Dr. Quinn:

The Director of Central Intelligence's Intelligence Information Handling Committee is sponsoring a Personal Computer (PC) Information Security Conference, to be held at the Rosslyn Westpark Hotel, Arlington, Virginia, on 9-10 May 1988. This conference will be attended by representatives from government, industry, and academia and will address PC security technology developments and policy implications affecting intelligence organizations' burgeoning use of personal computers.

I would like to invite you to attend the conference and to present its keynote address on Monday, 9 May, from 9:30 - 10:00 AM. From your unique perspective as Chairman of the National Telecommunications and Information Systems Security Committee, I would ask you to focus on U.S. Government computer security policy and issues, with emphasis on personal computers.

I would appreciate receiving your response by 25 March to provide for adequate follow-on preparation time; response may be made by telephone to STAT   either_____or myself at_____ I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

STAT

Chairman
